

Following the public comment of Scientific Working Group for Forensic Toxicology (SWGTOX) Standard for Developing a Guide and Code of Professional Conduct in Forensic Toxicology, the following major changes were made to the document:

- An Introductory Section was added.
- Added a definition of authoritative bodies.
- Added an expectation for individuals to disclose both attempts of unethical influence by others and improper conduct of which they become aware.
- Added an expectation of laboratories to investigate all complaints received.